

Coquitlam Metro-Ford Soccer Club Privacy Policy

February 2016

Coquitlam Metro-Ford Soccer Club (CMFSC)

PRIVACY POLICY

Purpose

1. CMFSC's Privacy Policy is governed by the BC Personal Information Protection Act ("PIPA"), and describes the way that CMFSC collects, uses, and discloses personal information of third parties in the course of its activities, implementing CMFSC's commitment to collect, use and disclose personal information responsibly. The CMFSC Privacy Policy is based on the standards required by PIPA, and CMFSC's interpretation of these responsibilities. To the extent that the provisions in this Privacy Policy are inconsistent with PIPA, PIPA's requirements shall govern.
2. This policy deals with personal information about players, parents, fans, directors, officials, coaches and other volunteers. A separate privacy policy governs how CMFSC collects, uses and discloses information about its own employees.

Personal Information

3. Personal information is information about an identifiable individual and includes information that relates to their personal characteristics (e.g., gender, age, income, home address or phone number, ethnic background, family status), their health (e.g., health history, health conditions, health services received by them), their competitive performance or their activities and views (e.g., religion, politics, opinions expressed by an individual, an opinion or evaluation of an individual). Personal information, however, does not include business contact information (e.g., an individual's business address and telephone number), which is not protected by PIPA.

Accountability

4. The Privacy Officer of CMFSC is responsible for the organization's handling of personal information and ensuring that all staff receives appropriate training on privacy issues. The Privacy Officer also handles personal information access requests and complaints. The Privacy Officer may be contacted at the following address:

Coquitlam Metro-Ford Soccer Club
C/O Privacy Officer
1111 Ioco Road
Port Moody, BC

 - l) Marketing information including attitudinal and demographic data on individual members and registered players to determine membership demographic structure, and program wants and needs.
 - m) Passport numbers and frequent flyer numbers for the purposes of arranging travel.

- n) Club, League and District contact information such as club name, web address, contact names, phone number and email address for the purpose of CMFSC and member programming. Further, this information is collected, used or disclosed for the purpose of directing the public to such club and provide easy access for club-to-club communication.
 - o) Name and contact information of board members, volunteers and committee members for the purpose of communication within and between committees, volunteers, Board members and staff.
6. CMFSC is a member of and accredited by the Tri-Cities Youth Soccer Association and BC Soccer Association. As a condition of such participation, CMFSC discloses certain information as required by the Tri-Cities Youth Soccer Association and BC Soccer Association. CMFSC also reports certain personal information to the various government-related agencies, which provide funding for CMFSC programs, as may be required by those agencies in connection with such funding.
7. If a purpose has not been identified herein, CMFSC will make best efforts identify such and seek consent from individuals when personal information is collected, used or disclosed for a purpose not already consented to.

Indirect Collection

8. While CMFSC typically collects information directly from individuals, information may be collected from individuals by organizations associated with CMFSC, principally officials, Clubs, Leagues, Districts, governing bodies and competition organizers to enable the individual's or their team's participation in the activities of the organization. CMFSC relies on these individuals and organizations to ensure collected information is accurate and that collection and submission of this information has been done in compliance with all applicable laws, including PIPA.

Consent

9. CMFSC will obtain any required consent by lawful means from individuals at the time of direct collection, prior to the use or disclosure of the personal information. If the consent to the collection, use or disclosure was not obtained upon receipt of the information, consent will be obtained prior to the use or disclosure of that information. Prior to or as part of obtaining this consent, CMFSC will disclose to individuals the purpose for which the personal information is to be collected, used or disclosed.
10. CMFSC may collect, use, or disclose personal information without consent where reasonable to do so and where permitted under PIPA or by law. Without limiting the foregoing, CMFSC may collect, use or disclose personal information in circumstances including the following:
- a) Personal information is collected by observation of a public sporting event at which the person appears voluntarily
 - b) The information is necessary to determine an individual's suitability for an athletic position, standing or ranking

- c) The information is necessary to determine an individual's suitability for an honour, award or similar benefit, including a scholarship or bursary,
 - d) The collection, use or disclosure is necessary for the medical treatment of the individual and the individual is unable to give consent, or
 - e) Where the collection, use, or disclosure of the information is clearly in the interests of the individual and consent cannot be obtained in a timely way
11. By providing personal information to CMFSC, and participating in its programs and activities, individuals are considered to have consented to the use of the information in the manner and for the purposes identified in this policy.
12. CMFSC will not, as a condition of a product or service, require an individual to consent to the collection, use or disclosure of information beyond that required to fulfill the specified purpose.
13. An individual may withdraw consent to the collection, use or disclosure of personal information at any time, subject to legal or contractual restrictions. The Privacy Officer will advise the individual of the implications of such withdrawal. Depending on the circumstances, if consent is withdrawn the individual may not be able to continue their participation in certain programs and activities of CMFSC.

Limiting Collection

14. All personal information will be collected fairly, by lawful means and for the purposes as specified in this policy or as specified at the time of collection. CMFSC will not use any form of deception to obtain personal information.

Limiting Use, Disclosure and Retention

15. Personal information will not be used or disclosed by CMFSC for purposes other than those for which it was collected or as provided herein, except with the consent of the individual or as required or permitted by law.
16. Personal information will be retained for a minimum of one year after its last use by CMFSC. After that time, information will be retained for such further periods as may be appropriate and necessary for the business purposes of CMFSC pursuant to best practices and standards, or as required by law, after which time it will be securely destroyed or erased in accordance with CMFSC's internal records policies and procedures.

Accuracy

17. CMFSC will use accurate and up-to-date information as is necessary for the purposes for which it is to be used, to minimize the possibility that inappropriate information may be used to make a decision about an individual. As indicated above, CMFSC relies on officials, Clubs, Leagues, Districts, governing bodies and competition organizers for the accuracy of information collected by them.

Safeguards

18. CMFSC is obligated to protect personal information by making reasonable security arrangements against such risks as unauthorized access, loss, copying, theft, collection, use, disclosure or disposal. Personal information is protected by security safeguards appropriate to the sensitivity of the information. Methods of protection and safeguards include, but are not limited to, locked filing cabinets, restricted access to offices, security clearances, need-to-know access and technological measures including the use of passwords, encryption and firewalls.

Openness

19. CMFSC will make available, through its web site, information about its policies and practices relating to the management of personal information.

20. The information available to the public includes:

- a) The name or title, address and e-mail of CMFSC's Privacy Officer.
- b) The systems that may be used to access personal information or change information.
- c) Access to information that explain the organization's policies, standards, or codes on the CMFSC web site.

Individual Access

21. Subject to PIPA and all applicable laws, upon written request, and with assistance from CMFSC, an individual may be informed of the existence, use and disclosure of his or her personal information and may be given access to that information. As well, an individual may be entitled to be informed of the source of the personal information along with an account of third parties to whom the information has been disclosed unless this information shall or may not be disclosed by law.

22. Requested information will be disclosed to the individual within 30 days of receipt of the written request at no cost to the individual, or at nominal costs relating to photocopying expenses, unless there are reasonable grounds to extend the time limit.

23. If nominal fees will be charged for the production of personal information under CMFSC's control, the organization will provide the applicant with a written estimate of the fee prior to providing the information.

24. If personal information is inaccurate or incomplete, it will be amended as required. An individual may request correction of his or her personal information that is under the custody or control of CMFSC. Subject to reasonable cost and timeliness, if appropriate CMFSC will correct the information within 30 days of receiving a written request in the approved form. If corrections are not made, CMFSC will annotate the personal information under its control, indicating that the correction was requested but not made.

25. An individual may be denied access to his or her personal information if:

- a) This information is prohibitively costly to provide;
- b) The information contains references to other individuals;
- c) The information cannot be disclosed for legal, security or commercial proprietary purposes;
- d) The information is subject to solicitor-client or litigation privilege;
- e) The law otherwise requires or permits the information not to be disclosed.

26. Upon refusal, CMFSC will inform the individual the reasons for the refusal and the associated provisions of PIPA.

Challenging Compliance

27. An individual may challenge the CMFSC's compliance with PIPA, by submitting a complaint in writing/e-mail to:

Coquitlam Metro-Ford Soccer Club
C/O Privacy Officer
1111 Ioco Road
Port Moody, BC
V3H 2W9
Email: privacy@cmfsc.ca

28. Upon receipt of a written complaint, CMFSC will:

- a) Record the date the complaint is received;
- b) Acknowledge receipt of the complaint by way of e-mail;
- c) Notify the Privacy Officer who will clarify the nature of the complaint at an early stage and seek to informally resolve the complaint;
- d) If unresolved, appoint an investigator using CMFSC personnel or an independent investigator;
- e) Notify the complainant of the outcome of the investigation and any relevant steps taken to rectify the complaint, including any amendments to policies and procedures, usually within 60 days of receipt of the complaint.

29. An individual may request a review of CMFSC's compliance with this policy by contacting the British Columbia Information and Privacy Commissioner at www.oipc.bc.ca.

30. CMFSC may, from time to time, review and revise this Privacy Policy and its practices, and reserves the right to make changes at any time without notice.
